

Unleash your STORY

In honor of
TEEN READ WEEK
October 8-14, 2017

The theme for Teen Read Week is 'Unleash Your Story'.
What is YOUR story? Create a piece of art that reflects this theme!
Art will be displayed on the Library art wall during the month of October and the winner will have the opportunity for their art to be transformed into a bookmark and featured on our website!

A FEW RULES (AND SOME ADVICE):

- Any student in 6th-12th grades may participate.
- To win, you must have a Helen Plum Library card or attend a school served by Helen Plum Library
- Use colored pencils, crayons, paints, or markers
- Your entry cannot be 3-dimensional
- No drawing assistance please!
- The drawing must be your own work!
- NO trademarked characters like Disney or Marvel (we can't print them!)
- You can only turn in only ONE bookmark design
- You can photocopy the entry form. Only entries on white paper will be accepted
- Turn in to the Youth Services desk at Helen Plum Library. Your entry must be at the library no later than Sunday, October 1, 2017 at 5pm
- All artwork becomes the property of Helen Plum Library and will not be returned

WHAT HAPPENS IF I WIN?

Winners will be notified by Sunday, October 8th.
The winner will receive 30 professionally printed bookmarks and their printed bookmarked will be available in the Teen Zone in October while supplies last. The runner up will receive 30 professionally printed bookmarks.

ALL bookmark entries will be displayed on the Helen Plum art wall during the month of October; beginning with Teen Read Week.
